

Alumni residing in Oregon and Washington

This map tracks individuals who graduated from the Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine and now reside in the states of Washington and Oregon. Tracking alumni using maps is helpful for several reasons. It helps us decide where to plan regional events, it allows us to connect current students to alumni who may be interested in practicing in those states, and it helps us collect rural medicine data.

Submitted by: Nicki Crellin